

Academic Honesty Education Module 2023

Resources and Support

INFORMATION ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND HONESTY

Academic Integrity is everyone's responsibility. That means the University, its process and policies, its staff, and its students. Through the student lens, this means:

- submitting your own work
- sitting your own tests and exams
- reporting a suspected breach of Academic Integrity

You can find more information on the current students website

- Learn more about academic integrity
- Find out about types of academic integrity breaches, including contract cheating
- How does detection, reporting and investigation work?
- Learn more about what student misconduct is and how to report it

LEARNING AND SUPPORT SERVICES

LIBRARY

- Visit the Library
- Learn more about Referencing and Citation Styles
- Video chat or message a Peer Learning Advisor via PeerConnect. Available Mon – Fri, 12pm – 4pm
- Exam ready sessions are run by the Peer Learning Advisors every semester to help you to keep healthy, study effectively, connect with others to succeed in your exams.
- Assignment support for coursework students – Join a drop-in session or workshop.
- PeerPod is a bi-monthly podcast that discusses topics related to various aspects of university life from a student perspective.

COUNSELLING AND MENTAL HEALTH SUPPORT

- As a student, you can access free professional and confidential psychological and mental health services through our Student Counselling Service.
- The self-help resources and apps cover a range of topics to help you manage your well-being, including strategies to help with your study such as beating procrastination, time management among other things.

LEARNING HUB

- The Learning Hub (Academic Language and Learning) helps students to develop their academic communication, research and study skills.
- Sign up for Academic Language and Learning workshops or Peer-facilitated programs.
- You can also access further learning resources and courses in the Learning Hub (Academic Language and Learning) Canvas site.
- The Learning Hub (Mathematics) provides a safe and supportive environment for students to develop the mathematical confidence and ability needed to succeed in their courses.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION AND ARRANGMENTS

- While you are studying, there may be exceptional circumstances or essential commitments that impact your academic performance. Find out more about the special consideration and special arrangements process.

INCLUSION AND DISABILITY SERVICES

- We offer a range of services and adjustments to help you achieve your academic goals and minimise the impact a disability can have on your experience at university. See more information on Inclusion and Disability Support.

FURTHER ADVICE AND SUPPORT

For advice and support in various processes, you may wish to speak to the student organisations.

- The Students' Representative Council (SRC)
What the SRC Casework Help service can do for you (undergraduate students).
- Sydney University Postgraduate Representative Association (SUPRA)
Learn about SUPRA Student Advice and Advocacy Service (postgraduate students).